

Friends of The Ridgeway

Swire Ridgeway Arts Prize

Exhibition

Saturday and Sunday 27 - 28 April 2019

Thomas Hughes Memorial Hall, Uffington

The Ridgeway – the oldest road in Britain – with its wonderful views and its powerful atmosphere has always appealed to the creative spark in artists and in all of us.

The Friends of The Ridgeway have established an annual arts competition and prize – the Swire Ridgeway Arts Prize. The aim of the competition is to bring The Ridgeway to life not only as a long distance trail but as an artistic inspiration. The competition is open to works of painting, sculpture, photography and writing (poetry or prose), that show aspects of The Ridgeway, its history and environs, in any season.

Entries for the Swire Ridgeway Arts Prize will be exhibited at a public exhibition. It will be open to the public on Saturday 27 April and Sunday 28 April 2019 from 10:00am to 5:00pm in the Thomas Hughes Memorial Hall, Uffington (Broad Street, Uffington, Oxfordshire, SN7 7RA), located in the centre of the beautiful and historic rural village of Uffington in the Vale of the White Horse.

The results of the competition will be announced and prizes awarded at the Ridgeway Friends Day held in Thomas Hughes Memorial Hall on Sunday 28 April 2019 at 4:00pm.

Entry to the exhibition is free. Refreshments will be available over both days. Please come along to view the exhibition – the way the Ridgeway has inspired artists.
